A .J. KELLY,)	PRELIMINARY ORDER
)	OF FORFEITURE
)
Defendant.)

This matter comes on before the Court upon the United States' Motion for Issuance of Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (Filing No. 75). The Court reviews the record in this case and, being duly advised in the premises, finds as follows:

1. On August 13, 2009, the Defendant was found guilty by a jury of Count I. The Court found the Defendant guilty of Count II. Count I of said Indictment charges the Defendant with being a felon in possession of a firearm, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1). Count II of said Indictment charges the Defendant with using a Colt .22 caliber pistol, with a partially defaced serial number but which appears to be 165945, on the basis it was a firearm involved or used in the knowing commission of the offense charged in Count I.

2. By virtue of said verdict, the Defendant forfeits his interest in the subject property, and the United States should be entitled to possession of said property, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c).

IT IS ORDERED:

A. The United States' Motion for Issuance of Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (Filing No. 75) is hereby sustained.

B. Based upon Count II of the Indictment and the guilty verdict, the United States is hereby authorized to seize a Colt .22 caliber pistol, with a partially defaced serial number but which appears to be 165945.

C. The Defendant's interest in said property is hereby forfeited to the United States for disposition in accordance with the law, subject to the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1).

D. The aforementioned forfeited property is to be held by the United States in its secure custody and control.

E. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1), the United States forthwith shall publish for at least thirty consecutive days on an official Government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov) notice of this Order, Notice of Publication evidencing the United States' intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct, and notice that any person, other than the Defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in any of the subject forfeited property must file a Petition with the court within thirty days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier.

F. Said published notice shall state the Petition referred to in Paragraph E., above, shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the Petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the Petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the Petitioner's right, title or interest in the subject property and any additional facts supporting the Petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

G. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property subject to this Order as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

H. Upon adjudication of all third-party interests, this Court will enter a Final Order of Forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), in which all interests will be addressed.

DATED this 24th day of August, 2009.
